

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: October 16, 2026

1. Introduction

Boutique Del Vino Galimberti LLC, operating its private dining services under the name Galimberti Private Dining (“we,” “our,” or “us”), respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you share with us.

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and share information when you visit our website, contact us, or inquire about our private chef and dining services.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect the following information when you contact us or request our services:

- Name and contact information, including email address and phone number.
- Event details, including the event address, date, number of guests, and requested services.
- Food preferences, dietary restrictions, and allergy information you voluntarily provide.
- Billing and payment-related information necessary to process transactions.
- Technical information collected through our website, such as browser information, cookies, and website usage data, where applicable.

Please do not provide information that is not necessary to arrange your event or provide our services.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information collected to:

- Respond to inquiries and prepare proposals.
- Plan and deliver private dining services.
- Communicate about reservations, payments, and event details.
- Process payments and maintain business records.
- Improve our website and customer experience.
- Comply with applicable legal and regulatory obligations.

We do not use your contact information for unrelated marketing purposes without an appropriate legal basis or consent where required.

4. Sharing of Information

We do not sell your personal information.

We may share relevant information with trusted service providers when necessary to operate our business, including website hosting, website analytics, email communications, and payment processing providers such as Wix and Intuit, where used.

We may also disclose information when required by law or when reasonably necessary to protect our legal rights and business.

We do not authorize service providers to use your information for purposes unrelated to the services they provide to us, subject to applicable law and their contractual obligations.

5. Payments

Payments may be processed through third-party payment providers. Payment information submitted through their platforms is subject to their respective privacy and security policies.

We do not intend to collect or store complete payment card details directly through our website.

6. Cookies and Website Technologies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, understand visitor activity, and improve performance, depending on the tools enabled on the site.

You may be able to manage cookies through your browser settings or any cookie preference tools made available on our website.

7. Data Retention and Security

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to respond to inquiries, provide services, maintain business and tax records, resolve disputes, and meet applicable legal obligations.

We use reasonable measures to protect personal information. However, no method of electronic storage or transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on applicable law, you may have rights to request access to, correction of, or deletion of certain personal information.

To submit a privacy-related request, please contact us using the information below. We may need to verify your identity before responding.

9. Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of websites we do not operate.

10. Children's Privacy

Our website and services are intended for adults arranging private dining services. We do not knowingly collect personal information directly from children through our website.

11. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated revision date.
